ALMA MATER

Where the tall pines stand in greatness
'Neath the skies of blue,
Stands our noble Alma Mater
Glorious to view.

Lift the chorus, speed it onward,
May it never fail;
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater,
Hamlet High, All Hail.

CLASS HISTORY

As we near the end of our last school term we suddenly realize how quickly the years have passed and how much they have meant to us.

Some of us have taken advantage of the opportunities that have been offered us; these are the ones who will benefit most from what they have learned. The others will go on as they have in school—doing as little as possible.

But wherever we go or whatever we do, we shall still have the memories of our school days. Perhaps we will remember when:

First Grade:

We all entered school for the first time and were eager to get started. About an hour later we were all eager to go home. Mildred Smith had to be spanked because she didn't want to stay in school.

Miss Dellinger held Polly Lou Robbins on her lap because she was so little and cute.

Patty Sue Williams got a spanking almost every day for talking.

Marie Smith was sure Bryant Thompson was a "goner" when he picked up a lighted firecracker.

Joyce Hatcher got a spanking for walking around the room while the other students were reading.

Patsy McLean didn't blush when spoken to.

Second Grade:

Mrs. Ware tried to teach the girls how to knit.

Jean Smith and Joyce Pence learned the art of popping their gum, and they were well supplied at all times. (Still are.)

Annie Mae Yates got in a fight with a boy and came out with two black eyes.

Third Grade:

All the girls were crazy about Tommy Moore.

Gene Huguelet mailed Kay Hargett a big valentine with "Sweetheart" written on it.

Bernard Williams jumped out of the window when he got mad with Mrs. Clements.

Ben McGowan received help on his homework from Herbert Kirkley.

Fourth Grade:

Pat Selph stuck Darlene Williams' hair in place with bubblegum.

Dan Howell told his mother that he was going to marry Everette Ann Smith when he graduated and take her to Florida.

Joe Wooten came to Hamlet and Dorothy Davis welcomed him heartily.

Carolyn Wilkinson received a bracelet from Bobby Parker which said, "To Carolyn with All My Love, Bobby."

Grady Beck thought he was Superman because he weighed all of sixty pounds.

Fifth Grade:

Nash Le Grand and Nancy Woodard were a steady twosome.

CLASS HISTORY

We had daily inspection to choose the neatest person.

Darlene Williams and Lula Mae Mitchum chased the boys at recess every day. Poor Joe Wooten couldn't run fast enough and his penalty was a kiss from Darlene.

Patsy Williams cried because Joseph Corbin winked at her all day in class.

Sixth Grade:

Miss Brewer beat Joe Strickland on the hand while Miss Tillman was beating his can.

Jane Evans moved to Hamlet and all the boys were crazy about her, but she picked Gene Huguelet to be her "one and only."

Joe Lucas walked Patsy Williams home every day.

Becky Woodall was the center of attraction when she came to school wearing her first angora sweater.

Seventh Grade:

Nancy Milham went steady with Charlie Thompson.

Jimmy Hendricks fell through the ceiling of Marion Farmer's home, and Mrs. Farmer got after him with a broom.

Everyone thought Mitchell Hargett was going to be another Frank Sinatra, but he turned out to be a "Tennessee Ernie."

Mr. Haltiwanger gave Richard Carnes his first beating.

Sue Brown and Pat Selph didn't know the difference in the boys' and girls' restrooms, and they went to the one below the seventh grade every day.

Ida Rose Bruton had to stay in five hours for getting caught with a love note to Mack Allen.

Eighth Grade:

Betty Mixson moved to Hamlet and she couldn't choose between Howard Martin and Jimmy Blakely.

Elma Monteith preferred senior boys to mere Junior High kids.

Mrs. Creel's class had eraser fights between classes.

Bill Norris and Gene Huguelet went "dear" hunting every day at Kinsman's.

The skating rink was set up between Hamlet and Rockingham, and it immediately became the center of communication between Hamlet girls and Rockingham boys.

Charles Newton brought bees to school and terrified everyone when he let them loose.

Ninth Grade:

Tommie Wilder and Isabel Freeman used to race at break-neck speed to stand in line beside David Rice and Bruce Hamilton.

Eva Davis and Carl Uzzell started going steady—and haven't stopped.

Betty Turner didn't like Jack Brigman.

CLASS HISTORY

Patsy Brigman joined the Byrd and Hargett clan.

Effie Hargett and Margaret Byrd brought a rooster to school and it started crowing on the bus.

Bill McGoogan was sent to the office four times in one day.

Tenth Grade:

Marion Farmer got very mysterious love notes.

Jesse Long decided that he preferred Miss Liles to another English teacher and moved to Hamlet.

Bill Gaddy was mooning over Gerry McDuffie.

Aubrey Dunn came to school one morning with his face all bandaged. You guessed it! His first shave.

Eleventh Grade:

Jack McDougald was the only one who wanted Rockingham's band to play for our Junior-Senior.

Remus Edwards could think of no other way of getting out of classes, so he took the bus-driver's test and passed.

Beatrice Presnell became chief cook and bottle-washer in the lunch-room.

Clara Gibson and Jewell Craddock poured Pepsi-Cola into the gas-tanks of the wrecker down at Oakes Motor Co.

Shirley Moore came to us from Harding High School in Charlotte.

Pat Zilonka, Effie Hargett, and Margaret Suggs got married. After all, who wants to be an old maid?

Larry Hammond decided his Hi-Y pin looked much better on Libby.

We all went to the Junior-Senior and had a wonderful time.

Twelfth Grade:

Bessie Cox finally made the basketball team.

Gladys Lewis spent her lunch hour every day in a black car parked in front of the school. (Who says you can't live off love?)

Wyatt Parker used his French class to catch up on his sleep.

Jerry Scholl didn't like the pictures in his books, so he brought his own private collection to admire.

Jack McDougald turned such a pretty shade of pink when he presented the Homecoming Queen with a crown and a kiss.

The Senior Play was a huge success.

The Seniors got their rings and everyone got very friendly. (You know what I mean. They went around waving at everyone they saw.)

Juanita Slate came to Hamlet and said she had had nothing but bad luck since.

Well, those are the things that have happened to us; and good or bad, they have made our history a wonderful one to remember.

1. It's a touchdown!
 2. Intellectual convention. (?)
 3. Some of the fellers.
 4. Junior-Senior servants.
 5. Second home to some of the fellers.

6. What's coming off here?
 7. Must be the weather.
 8. Farmer Henney. See that rake!
 9. Initiation comes but once a year. (Thank goodness!)
 10. Just lost their last dime.

Vitality a

Prerequisite

to our minds and bodies is given us by our extensive athletic program. All the skill and strength we acquire we can attribute to the patient work of our coaches, and to our school for providing us with the equipment and the will to work together in athletics.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Seated, left to right—Richard Carnes, Ike Gainey, and Charles McKee (Managers). Kneeling, left to right—Nash Le Grand, Jimmy Suggs, Ray Samuels, Jack McDougald, Donald Wilson, Bill McGoogan, Joe Wooten, Ronald Parker, Jerry Sims, Gene Hennecy. Second row, left to right—Carl Uzzell, Jack Murphy, Bruce King, Jimmy Montgomery, Clarke Carroll, Larry Edwards. Third row, left to right—Jerry Scholl, Martin Hatcher, Bernard Williams, Roy Peele, Tommy Hendricks, Pete Hornaday, and Charles McGilvary.

SPORTS ROUND-UP

After two dismal seasons the Red Rams burst out of the cellar in a blaze of glory. Led by the hard-running Carl Uzzell, most valuable player according to the team, the Rams won seven of ten games and were given another on a forfeit. The Rams featured in the backfield Uzzell, Pete Hornaday, Jerry Sims, and Ray Samuels on offense with "Jarrin'" Jack McDougald, Jack Murphy and Nash Le Grand doing the defensive chores. The line play was mighty fine with such stalwarts as Joe Wooten, Arthur McDuffie, Tommy Hendricks, Martin Hatcher, Billy (Dynamite) McGoogan, Roy Peele, Bernard Williams, Gene Hennecy, and Jerry Scholls cracking the enemy ball carriers before they could step out of their tracks.

In the first game of the season the Rams romped on Bennettsville 40-7. Sims, Uzzell, and Hornaday each crossed into the end zone two times as the Rams won going away. In the next game Whiteville came to town and left on the short end of a 20-7 score. The highly regarded Scots of Laurinburg came to Hamlet favored to mop up the conference. The Rams played as they had never played before and upset the Scots 20-13. It was a hard-fought battle all the way with a line showing up the backfield. Then came the McCall game and Hamlet rolled on by the score of 33-6. Wadesboro was our next visitor and the Anson County neighbors were licked 28-13. The biggest let-down of the season came when the Rams were upset by Rockingham, our enemy from across the way, 20-0.

Lumberton was next on the schedule and the Rams dropped a heart-breaker to the state champs 26-13. The mud and rain didn't stop the ball game the next week as the Rams played their hearts out against Sanford but lost, 6-0. The Hamlet team was later awarded a forfeit because Sanford used an ineligible player. The short losing streak was snapped when the Tabor City team was taken to the cleaners, 26-6. The Rams then ended up a successful season by clipping Clinton 13-7 in a thriller at Memorial Park.

This is the summary of a comeback team. The spirit has never been grander, the support has never been greater, and because of this the Seniors of '52 say, "We are proud of you, Rams, and we wish you the best of luck in the years to come."

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

Town of Hamlet
County of Richmond
State of North Carolina
United States of America
North America, Western Hemisphere
Planet, Earth

May 30, 1952

We, the Senior Class of Nineteen Hundred Fifty-Two, being of sound mind and body do hereby declare this the Last Will and Testament of said Senior Class. This will therefore annuls and revokes any will (or wills) made by heretofore.

Item I

To the faculty goes our sincere appreciation for their patience and understanding which we always deserved.

Item II

Mack Allen leaves his cat cut to the Williams clan and the remaining bit to Buzzy Wheeler.

Grady (Hercules) Beck leaves his "Charles Atlas" build to Ike Gainey so he may be first string football manager next fall.

Glenn Baldwin bequeathes his absentee record to Bobby Hutchens.

Richard Carnes relinquishes his shoes to Martin Hatcher so he can increase his to a size fourteen. The rest is to be divided among any ten people that need a more firm foundation.

Aubrey Dunn leaves to some poor sucker a well-used drum.

Remus "Hot-Rod" Edwards leaves one et-up bus to anybody that can drive the darn thing.

Marion Farmer bequeathes his ability to sleep through classes to Arthur McDuffie.

Billy "Dueberry" Gaddy relinquishes the shop to Coach Williamson, the original owner.

Larry Hammond leaves his debts, troubles, etc., to Tommy Hendricks and the writer of next year's will.

Mitchell "Songbird of the South" Hargett leaves his fine voice to next year's Glee Club so they might win the State Contest.

Jimmy Hendricks leaves a collection of well-used records to Patty Ann Pait and his ability to recite Shakespeare to the rising Seniors.

Dan Howell bequeathes his ability to debate with Miss Flynt to some brave Junior or Senior.

Gene "Rat" Huguélet leaves his French knowledge to next year's class so they might all fail.

Herbert "Hubcap" Kirkley relinquishes enough of his basketball talent to the remainder of the Kirkley clan so each one will be All-State and he leaves the rest to Bruce King.

Nash Le Grand leaves his ability to make errors to Bobby Atkinson and his batting average to Tommy Wooten.

Jesse Long leaves his Southern drawl to Norman Chambers.

Joe Lucas relinquishes an open road to Sanford to anyone who has the gas to go there.

Jack "Country Boy" McDougald bequeathes his talent for dating all the Freshman class to any ambitious boy who likes to date eight times a week. (Twice a day on Sunday.)

Bill McGoogan leaves a well-used upper plate to some unfortunate member of next year's football team.

Ben McGowan relinquishes his advertising post for Yancy to Jimmy "Southbound" Nelson.

Charles Newton bequeathes his ability to speak much and say little to Andy Hemphill.

Bill Norris leaves his privilege to sleep at the cabin after a big party to Bobby Williams and "Blue Flame."

Wyatt Parker gives Birmingham's Drugstore back to Mr. Birmingham and Bobby Stephens.

Jerry Scholl parts after thirteen years with this statement, "It was a hard fight, but I won, Ma."

Joe Strickland leaves his ability to do something all the time but never accomplish anything to Clarke Carroll.

Bryant Thompson relinquishes his Alan Ladd manner and ways to Ray Samuels.

Carl Uzzell leaves his little black book to the boys who want to go out of town and meet all boys and no girls.

Bernard Williams leaves his rough football tactics to Jimmy Montgomery and Charlie McGilvary.

LAST WILL and TESTAMENT

Joe Wooten leaves his love to practice ball to Bruce King and Brother Tommy.

Patsy Brigman relinquishes her shorthand book to the school because she can't take it with her.

Sue Brown leaves her title of "Brain of the Girls" to Tat Howell and the bookroom to someone who wants to become popular with all the boys.

Ida Rose Bruton leaves her collection of sweaters to any girl who can draw attention like she could.

Margaret Byrd leaves her quick wit and funny sayings to Miss Flynt.

Bessie Cox leaves her quiet way to Lillie Gill Gross.

Jewel Craddock bequeathes her ability to get along with Study Hall teachers to Buck Mitchum.

Dorothy Davis bequeathes the manager's job of the basketball team to some poor slave.

Eva Davis just leaves the team so Miss Sinclair can coach again.

Jane Evans leaves her almost new French book to next year's class since it isn't doing her any good.

Isabel Freeman bequeathes her waiting patience to Joanne Kennedy.

Clara Gibson relinquishes her love for English to the rising Seniors.

Effie Hargett Anderson leaves her book, "Fond Memories Of H. H. S. and Buck" to the Library.

Kay Hargett bequeathes her red hair to Bonnie Carnes and Peggy Jean Norton.

Joyce Hatcher leaves her air of sophistication to Joyce Breeze.

Gladys Lewis leaves her rough basketball tactics to Johnsie Pate and Ruth Poston.

Sarah McCaw leaves her gift for never having a serious thought to Winnie Mitchum.

Patsy McLean bequeathes her dislike of school in any form to Doug Nelson and Jimmy East.

Nancy Milham relinquishes her constant smile to Hatsy Shortridge.

Betty Mixson leaves a book, "How To Go To School And Dislike It In A Few Easy Lessons."

Elma Monteith bequeathes her enormous height to Rhoda Williams.

Shirley Moore relinquishes her blond hair to Becky Faries so she can save on peroxide.

Beatrice Presnell leaves her sunny disposition and complimentary manner for the Juniors to dispose of.

Pat Selph, leaves her classy chassis to Shirley Quick so there will be traffic jams in the halls next year, too.

Juanita Slate bequeathes her black hair and friendly smile to Gerry McDuffie.

Everette Ann Smith leaves her perfect attendance record to anyone who loves school enough to keep it up.

Jean Smith leaves one baton to any good-looking girl who can brave rain, sleet, and snow to show off the old school.

Mildred Smith leaves the lunch money to anyone who wants to get to Dix Hill a little ahead of time.

Betty Turner leaves her typing ability to Patty Duke and the little left over to Miss Buck.

Carolyn Wilkinson bequeathes her record of being sick during school and well during vacations to some poor healthy person.

Darlene Williams relinquishes her "Science Digest" to Miss Dodson so she can have interesting chemistry reports next year, too.

Patty Sue Williams leaves her ability to do little and get good grades to Carolyn Garrison.

Patsy Williams bequeathes her love of Old Kaintuck to anyone who loves hill-billies.

Rebecca Woodall bequeathes the title of work-horse to next year's Senior class treasurer.

Nancy Woodard leaves the title of best jerk (soda, that is) to Peggy Hendly.

Tommie Wilder bequeathes her enormous physique to the ten smallest girls in school.

Annie Mae Yates leaves her love to speak up in English to any ambitious Junior.

Pat Zilonka Craven leaves a well-acted part in the Senior Play for someone to try to do better.

Margaret Suggs Witherspoon just leaves!
Item III

To the rising Seniors we give (with pleasure) our Senior Privileges. You get to pay more money than anyone else in school.

To the rising Juniors goes our sympathy. The Jr. Sr. is lots of fun but lots of headaches.

To the rising sophomores we say, "Have patience, you'll make it sooner or later."

To the rising freshmen go our best wishes and the advice to enjoy it now for you will hate to leave it behind.
